parlors at Mrs. Duval's unusually attractive.

Mrs. Abbott was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. A. Anderson, Mrs. C. H. Page, Mrs. H. C. Johnson and Mrs. G. M. Harrison.

Mrs. M. P. Maury presided at the table and Mrs. James H. Anderson poured chocolate.

Misses Anderson, Crutchfield, Whittle, Evans and Mrs. Uphur assisted in the dining room.

Miss Flora Whittle, the daughter of Judge Whittle, of Martinsville, had a very smart card party given in her home last Tuesday evening by Mrs. Clay Dwyer, of No. 14 North Third Street. Invited to meet Miss Whittle were: Miss Mary Drake, Miss Eugenia Selden Taylor, Miss Lily Wemple, of Danville, Va.; Miss Charlotte Miller, Miss Mary Monahan, Miss Lillian Blinnard, Miss Hattie Shields, Miss Frances Jenkins, Miss Lucy Shelton, Miss Brent Will, Miss Rebecca Walker, Miss Lisa Archer, Miss Minnie Biers, Miss Flora Whittle and Miss Nan Morris, Mr. Allen Newton, Mr. William Turner, Mr. Charles Bowe, Mr. Clifford Skelton, Mr. George Morgan, Mr. Carl Goodloe, Mr. Irving Bell, Mr. David Bridges, Mr. Owen Canada, Mr. Mackie Coleman, Mr. Gray Miller, Mr. Buck Archer, Mr. Walter Jones, Mr. Henry McCane and Mr. Paul Stevens.

Miss Martha Paxton, of Lexington, was the guest of honor at a card afternoon given last Wednesday by her hostess, Mrs. J. Alston Cabell, of East Grace Street. Progressive euchre was played, those taking part in the game being: Miss Sue Sullivan, Miss Emma Carrington, Miss Evelyn Gordon, Miss Lizzie Townes, Miss Bessie Hunter, Miss Mary James, Miss Louise James, Miss Marie Lightfoot, Miss Margaret Shields, Miss Annis Howard and Miss Annie Mayo. The first ladies' prize, won by Miss Marie Lightfoot, was presented to Miss Paxton. Miss Evelyn Gordon won in cutting for the second prize a sweet hay basket of Indian workmanship.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Z. Ebel, of West Main Street, entertained at progressive euchre on Friday evening last.

The prizes, two water-color picture frames, were painted by the hostess, as were the score cards. Mrs. Boyce D. Booker won the ladies' prize, and Mr. Z. P. Smith was the successful gentleman. After the game, refreshments were served on the card tables. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harlowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Z. P. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Boyce D. Booker, and Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Johnson.

Clubs and Societies.

The central committee of the A. P. V. A. met last Tuesday at noon in the Virginia Historical Society rooms. Those present were: Messames Lightfoot, Wellford, Anderson, Elyson, Theodore Elyson, Stanard, Robinson, Bruce, Watkins, Bull, Brock, and Murray. Mrs. Joseph Bryan presided.

New members elected were Mrs. Egbert Leigh, Mrs. George Bryan, Miss Mary Woodbridge and Mrs. W. A. Anderson.

Every arrangement for the old-fashioned party to take place in the Westmoreland Club, January 25th, is going forward briskly and the music, the dances and the supper are being arranged for by the most competent and practical women of affairs in Richmond.

The Junior Hollywood Association met last Wednesday with Miss Lizzie Townes, at No. 56 East Grace Street. The association will have charge of the Solid South table at the Confederate bazaar next spring. Miss Lizzie Townes will be chairman of the table committee, with Miss Minnie Baughman, the vice-regent for the Solid South room of the museum, as associate, and Miss Annie plankenship as alternate. Miss Isoline Jones was made treasurer; Miss Jacobs recording and Miss Anna Boykin, corresponding secretary, and Miss Annie Gray, chairman of the Committee on Publication. The title of the table was discussed, but no conclusion was reached.

The members of the Woman's Club will have the pleasure next Monday evening of an address from Mrs. John Moncreux, who will talk to them of "Philanthropic Women of Great Cities." Mrs. Moncreux has an intimate and personal knowledge of her subject, having lived for about ten years in Philadelphia, where her husband, now archdeacon of Virginia and the beloved city missionary of Richmond, western rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist. During the years she spent in Philadelphia, Mrs. Moncreux was prominent among philanthropic workers both in that city and New York, where she was sometimes called to speak. She is the daughter of Hon. Alexander Vance, of Ohio. Dr. Moncreux is the descendant of the first John Moncreux, who founded Aquia Church, in Stafford county.

The Milton Work Club played at their games in the Woman's Club yesterday a game of compass whist-five tables in all. Mrs. Ben Nash and Mrs. Bessie Smith making top score north and south.

Mrs. Harvie and Miss Moore highest east and west.

A very interesting and spirited game of team whist was played in the second room. Team No. 1 was composed of Mrs. Lador, captain; Mrs. Edmund Waddill, Mrs. Arthur Cannon and Mrs. Basil Spaulding. Team No. 2 was made up of Miss Florence Tyler, captain; Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Page and Miss Ferguson. Team No. 2 won by six points.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Charles Todd. Mrs. Junius Riddick and Mrs. C. C. Walker won north and south. Mrs. Charles Wingo and Miss Nannie Robinson east and west.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met last Tuesday night with Mrs. Harrie Webster, Miss Claire Guillaume and Captain Webster making top score. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Walter K. Martin.

Mrs. Mae Talley's pupils will give a Long song recital in her studio on Tuesday evening next. The selections, taken from the compositions of Margaret Ruthven Lang, well known as one of the most charming of modern song writers.

The "rummage sale" to have been held under the auspices of the Chimboraço Hospital Lady Board of Managers in the Van Vorst rooms on Main Street next week, beginning with Monday and running through the week, has been indefinitely postponed on account of sickness in the families of several of the ladies interested.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, December 15th, in the home of Mrs. William Mayer, No. 295 East Grace Street.

Powell-Burfoot.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burfoot of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth, to Mr. George Ainslie Powell.

The ceremony will take place Thursday, December 18th, at 10:30 A. M., in the parlors of the Rev. J. B. O'Reilly, of Sacred Heart Church.

Mr. Powell will be attended by Mr. James A. Davis and by his mother, the William Powell. The marriage will be quietly celebrated, and only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends will be present.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Powell will leave for Washington and New York. They will return to Richmond December 24th to spend Christmas here, but will be for a week in Cincinnati during the last of December. After January 2d, 1903, they will welcome their friends at No. 614 South Pine Street.

Miss Burfoot is the handsome and popular daughter of Police Sergeant William A. Burfoot. Mr. Powell is well and favorably known in the business connection with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company and otherwise.

Personal Mention.

General and Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee and their daughter, Miss Anne Lee, will arrive in Richmond to-morrow and be with Mrs. Duval, at No. 24 East Franklin Street, for the rest of the winter. The whole family are great Richmond favorites, and their coming will be pleasant news to their many friends here.

Misses Rachel and Mary Kinsey, of Petersburg, are the guests of Mrs. Walter L. Gordon.

Mrs. Thomas F. Jeffress has been spending a week very pleasantly at the Mecklenburg Hotel, China, City.

Mr. H. Clay Kinsey, of Petersburg, is visiting Mr. Robert Forrest, at No. 102 West Main Street.

Miss Frances Daniel Moseley has returned home from a delightful visit of several weeks to friends in Mecklenburg county, where she was the object of much pleasant social attention.

Miss Annie Clark Cullen, of Lynchburg, Va., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Rosalie Pettit.

Mrs. Annie E. Warren entertained very pleasantly last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren. Mrs. Warren was assisted in doing the honors of the evening by Mrs. Egbert Leigh, Mrs. W. T. Lemberger, Miss Mary Warren and Miss Kate Meade. The parlors and dining room were handsomely decorated in Christmas colors of red and green.

Mrs. India Davies and Mrs. Robert G. Thornton will attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Bettie Harrison Goodwin, to Mr. John A. McSparran, of Lancaster, Pa., which will take place December 31st, in Christ Church, Nottingham, Va.

Mrs. Wirt Taylor, of No. 95 West Grace Street, is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thornton have as their guests Mr. Thornton's mother and sister, Mrs. Thornton and Miss Mary Rebecca Thornton, of South Boston, Halifax.

Miss Sarah Baughman has issued invitations for a reception tea from 5 to 7 o'clock on Monday, December 15th. A card party in the evening will follow.

Miss Eloise Bruce's "Virginia Calendar" has been finished and put on sale. From cover to finish it is a beautiful piece of work. The quotations are well chosen and most interesting and the illustrations are very picturesque and original in conception. Any one who sees the calendar cannot fail to wish one for Christmas and all the year round.

Miss Allen Stokes, who reached New York last Thursday after thirteen months spent abroad, and her mother, Mrs. C. P.
